With daily language review, students practice language skills covering punctuation, verb tense, conjunctions, word meaning, and more in ten to fifteen-minute daily lessons. How it works: Daily Language Review follows the research-based model of frequent, focused practice to help students learn and retain skills. On days 1 through 4, half-page activities provide four language exercises: two sentence editing exercises, two items that practice a variety of language and vocabulary skills. On day 5, a full-page activity provides a more extensive practice of a vocabulary strategy or skill and gives students the opportunity to practice using the words in their own sentences. 36 weeks of daily practice activities cover grammar and usage, capitalization and punctuation, spelling and spelling patterns, vocabulary, word meaning and relationships, using acquired vocabulary, features and benefits. Concise daily lessons are easy to scaffold and ideal for daily warm-up, quick informal assessments, and test prep. The skills scope and sequence details the skills practiced each week. A downloadable skill list and answer key provides an item-by-item list of the skills practiced each day to help teachers identify student competencies. Each title includes downloadable home-school connection activities to encourage parent involvement, a progress chart, and vocabulary log help students monitor their daily scores and keep track of new vocabulary. This resource contains teacher support pages, reproducible student pages, and an answer key. This is a reproducible resource; photocopying of lessons is permitted for single classroom or individual home use only.
